

increase their workforce next year. Only 10% predict that will have eliminate positions and 30% anticipate no change in staff size.

3. Regarding diversity and inclusion, 52% of employers said they would increase communications to their employers with employee surveys, unconscious bias training and analysis or recruiting and hiring practices.

This survey included responses from 563 US employers in various industries and sizes. The total estimated number of employees responding organizations is over 900,000.

2021 here we come!