

A Conversation with Susan
Glasser, Peter Baker –
Authors of “The Man Who Ran
Washington: the Life and Times of James Baker III”

Free Virtual Event: October 27 @ 6 pm ET

COMMPRO AND THE MUSEUM OF PUBLIC RELATIONS PRESENT
A CONVERSATION WITH MICHAEL ZELDIN

PETER BAKER & SUSAN GLASSER
ON THEIR NEWEST
BEST-SELLER,
“THE MAN
WHO RAN
WASHINGTON”

FREE VIRTUAL EVENT
10/27, 6:00 PM ET

REGISTER

About

Join Michael Zeldin as he interviews Susan Glasser, Peter Baker – authors of “The Man Who Ran Washington: the Life and Times of James Baker III,” a chief of staff and secretary of state for 25 years, an era when Washington was regarded as the world’s political center. Glasser and Baker will discuss how Baker’s legacy compares with the current officials in DC and lessons we can learn about the administrations he helped to lead.

Purchase the book here.

Speakers

Peter Baker & Susan Glasser

Peter Baker and Susan Glasser
PHOTO CREDIT: Doug Mills

Peter Baker is the chief White House correspondent for The New York Times, a political analyst for MSNBC, and author of Days of Fire and The Breach. Susan Glasser is a staff writer for The New Yorker and author of its weekly “Letter from Trump’s Washington” as well as a CNN global affairs analyst. Their first assignment as a married couple was as Moscow bureau chiefs for The Washington Post, after which they wrote Kremlin Rising. Today they live in Washington, D.C., with their son.

Michael Zeldin

Michael Zeldin has served as a TV legal analyst since 1996, covering the OJ Simpson murder trial, Whitewater/Lewinsky investigation, Clinton impeachment proceedings, Gore v. Bush court challenges, and the Mueller Special Counsel investigation.

During his tenure in the U.S. Department of Justice, he held various senior positions, including: Deputy Chief, Narcotics and Dangerous Drug Section; Chief, Money Laundering and Asset Forfeiture Offices; and Special Counsel for Money Laundering Matters to Criminal Division Assistant Attorney General Robert Mueller.

Mr. Zeldin served as the Deputy Independent/Independent Counsel, investigating allegations of tampering with candidate Bill Clinton's passport files during the 1992 presidential campaign.

Mr. Zeldin also served as the Deputy Chief Counsel to the U.S. House of Representatives, Foreign Affairs Committee, October Surprise Task Force, where he investigated the events surrounding the holding of the American hostages in Iran during the Carter presidency.

He has published Op-ed pieces for CNN.com, The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, The Hill, The Washington Times, and The Washington Post.

He is an internationally recognized expert on money laundering, terrorist financing and economic sanctions.

REGISTER