THE CONVERGENCE OF ADVERTISING, MARKETING, PUBLIC RELATIONS AND MEDIA

The Communicator Summit Baltimore is the former Mid-Atlantic Marketing Summit (MAMS):

Baltimore. The summit will be held on September 26, 2019 at the Pier 5 Hotel in Baltimore.

This re-envisioned summit replaces MAMS that has been hosted in Baltimore for the past six years. The Communicator Summit will be more Baltimore-centric and will represent the convergence of all disciplines that comprise the profession of communications such as advertising, marketing, public relations, media, graphic design and production products and services. The prior summit, MAMS, brought together 300+ CMOs, Senior Marketers, Agency Professionals and Technology Executives from throughout the Mid-Atlantic area. Communicator Summit Baltimore will have programming for a broader range of communications professionals.

Communicator Summit is produced by Capitol Communicator, the media and events company serving the greater mid-Atlantic region's community of advertising, marketing, public relations, production and communications services professionals.
