

Is Your Resume Ready for the Mobile/Digital World? (Free Webinar On-Demand)

Is Your Resume Ready for the Mobile/Digital World?

Marie Raperto
President, CIMSearch
The Hiring Hub Blog

Tweet your questions to
#HHResumeTips

On-Demand
Free Webinar

Register Now

Webinar Overview

With recruiters and hiring managers embracing the mobile world, it's extremely important to get your resume out using these technologies.

Social recruiting has become very important. It has edged out job boards as a means to connect with employers and can help job seekers get noticed.

A mobile/digital resume can help introduce you in less time and space than a traditional resume.

But writing your resume for a 2" to 12" screen or in 140 characters requires different skills vs. a traditional resume.

In this webinar, we will cover:

- Why embracing mobile/digital technology is important

- How to write and use a Twitter resume
- The steps to make your traditional resume mobile/digital ready.

About Our Presenter

✘ Marie Raperto

President, CIMSearch / The Hiring Hub Blog

Ms. Raperto is currently President/Owner of Cantor Integrated Marketing Staffing, Inc. In 1990, she joined The Cantor Concern, Inc. as vice president, and then was made president. Previously, she was a principal and vice president with Jim Cotton Communications, Inc., an advertising/public relations design firm. Her clients included numerous Fortune 500 industrial and service companies, as well as leading hotels and consumer products companies.

Register Now