The Graduate School of Political Management (GSPM) will be hosting their Reinvigorating Democracy – Presidential Pollsters’ Event and Cocktail Reception on Wednesday, Sept. 14th. This free event will include an alumni & student networking reception.

The Society of Presidential Pollsters identify & obtain records of the polling for the Oval Office. With the help of the libraries at GW, it preserves questionnaires, letters, & memorabilia in order to establish an academic resource for the study of presidential decision-making.

George Washington’s Graduate Studies of Political Management Founding Dean Chris Arterton and Former President Bill Clinton’s Recognized Pollster, Mark Penn will assess American Government in the 21st Century at this event.
